I wanted to let you know that Saskia adored her bracelet. She actually got quite emotional and has taken that little bit of Gamble with her to Italy.

Hi Rebecca, the bracelet arrived as you said yesterday - it wasn't for me (although you did one for me back in June and I love it, more so now as I lost one of my horses a month ago) it was for a friend who lost her horse a week after me and saw my bracelet - I just wanted to let you know that she was over the moon with it. I shall without doubt be placing another order again soon. Thank you again for such wonderful work.

Kindest regards

Many thanks. Goods arrived today. Wife and daughter love the bracelets, really will help with The healing process.

Some friends have asked where she got them done, so hopefully you may get some more enquiries/orders from our part of the country.

As soon as you have the photos of the rings please send them as I know she will want one after seeing the quality of the bracelets.
